Terrible Explosion at City Quarry.

Five city hands were terribly cut and bruised yesterday morning at the city quarry by the accidental explosion of a charge of dynamite.

Bill Jackson, colored, was tamping the charge when it went off, throwing rock and men in every direction, and it was almost a miracle that no one was fatally injured. Those hurt were as follows:

Mike Holleran, cut about head and two ribs broken. He was completely buried with rock.

Ben Steagall was cut and bruised about the head, legs and feet. Mr. Steagall was also covered with heavy rock, and it is not yet known whether he is internally injured or not.

Jim Horton, cut and bruised about the head, face and body.

Charlie Stewart, colored, cut about the head and face.

Bill (Sloofoot) Jackson was more seriously hurt than any of the others, as he was standing over the charge. He was terribly cut about the head and face, and had two of his fingers on the left hand blown off. His injuries may prove fatal. Jackson's clothes were literally blown into threads from his body.

The charge of dynamite was the usual amount and Jackson was tamping it in the usual way, pouring in the dust and mashing it down with a drill.

Drs. William Kenney and Frank Fithian attended the cases of the unfortunate victims and at a late hour last night, we were informed that Jackson, the worst injured of the men, would no doubt recover.

CONSPIRACY.—J. T. Hinton is conspiring to beat the ice man. His North Star Refrigerator uses less ice than any other make.

The Musical Festival.

By the already large sale of tickets, a large and representative audience of Paris and Bourbon county people will no doubt fill the Opera House on Monday evening, June 6th, to enjoy the Musical Festival to be given for the benefit of the organ fund of the First Presbyterian Church.

This will be an entertainment that will long be remembered by our music loving people, for there is no city in Kentucky that can boast of its vocal talent as can Paris, and it will be seen by the following names of our sweet singers that this festival will be a sure enough musical treat:

Director—Dr. Frank Fithian.

Accompanist—Mrs. M. H. Dailey.

Soprano—Misses Washington, Renick, Rudisill, Hill, Talbott, Hooge, McClintock; Mesdames Sutherland, Price, Walker, Hedges, Davis, Gregg, Talbott and Fithian.

Altos—Misses O'Brien, Hill, Fithian, Wilson, Johnson, Hudson, McClintock; Mesdames Howard, Morgan, Beal and Shipp.

Tenors—Messrs. Howard, Walker, Condon, Alexander, Dailey and Harris.

Bassos—Messrs. Mitchell, Morgan, Johnson, Kerslake, Coons, McNamara, Faries, Swearingen and Varden.

Judge Smith's Court.

Yesterday was a busy day in Judge H. C. Smith's Court, and the violators of the law found that it is not very good for their health to be brought before His Honor.

Ed Cain was fined $14.50 for breach of the peace.

Frank Taylor, Jess Coleman, Arthur Turney and Will Garrett, all colored, were each given a reminder in the way of a fine of $19 each, that it is against the law to trespass on the farm of Clarke Bros., near Millersburg, and break down their fences, etc. Rather expensive little outing for these fishermen.

LION BEER.—Call for the Lion Beer and take no other.

Few Court House Facts.

For several days there have been rumors afloat that the Court House contractors had welched and would not finish the job, but upon investigation they were found to be untrue. Several Indiana dailies telegraphed here for a write up of "the Court House muddle," Wednesday, but the newspaper men were not onto the "muddle" and could not furnish the friends of the contractors, Crawford & Gibson, who are from Indiana, with any news.

In making our usual rounds for news we, however, discovered these facts: The contract price for the new Court House building is $142,481. Estimates by Architect Milburn for the work done on the building up to this time amounts to $75,000, and of this amount the contractors have drawn $60,000, the county holding back $15,000, or 20 per cent. of estimates made to date. In addition to this the county holds a bond for $25,000 that the contractors will finish the job.

The other day the contractors wanted to draw more money than was due them per contract, and Architect Milburn said nay, nay. It is a fact that Crawford & Gibson will lose money on the building, and the work to date having estimated to about $15,000 more than they had drawn might have cramped them a little for funds, and they naturally wanted to draw more money. However, they were told that the contract had to be adhered to, and the work is progressing just the same. Architect Milburn did order out a few pieces of patched stone, but there is nothing serious doing and no cause for all the rumors that are floating around.

A Competent Deputy.

On Wednesday morning last it seemed as if the Circuit Clerk's office would have to be temporarily closed. This would have been unfortunate and impracticable at this time as there was remaining only three days in which suits could be filed for the coming June term of Circuit Court.

Circuit Clerk Butler had just returned from the hospital at Cincinnati and was confined to his bed at his home on Second street. Mr. McChesney, Deputy Clerk, was at his home bowed with grief over the sudden death of his beloved wife.

Miss Frances, daughter of Mr. Butler, came to the rescue, was sworn in as Deputy by County Clerk Paton and assumed entire control of the office. The business of the office was not retarded a moment. Miss Butler makes a most competent and popular official.
